5 things to know about the feast day of our Lady of Lourdes

1. The first Apparition – February 11, 1858

On this day, Bernadette Soubirous saw a lady dressed in a white dress and white veil, with a blue belt around her waist and a yellow rose on each of her feet. Seventeen more times, Our Lady would visit Bernadette at this same spot at Massabiele in the Pyrenees Mountains, on the bank of the Gave de Pau river.

2. It is a heavenly approval

The apparition of Our Lady gave a stamp of approval from heaven to the papal declaration which had been made four years prior by Pope Pius IX, establishing the Dogma of the Immaculate Conception, because when Bernadette asked who she was, she answered “I am the Immaculate Conception.”

3. Today is also world Day of the Sick

Pope John Paul II declared on May 13, 1992, that the following year, 1993 this day will become the World Day of the Sick to commemorate all believers who “a special time of prayer and sharing, of offering one’s suffering.”

4. It is known for it’s miraculous spring

On February 25, 1858, in the 9th visit of Our Lady, she asked Bernadette to “drink from the fountain and bathe in it.” But Bernadette was puzzled, for there was no fountain to be seen. Our Lady asked her to dig, and with a little bit of uncovering, she discovered a pool of water to a stream.

5. It is one of the most famous pilgrimage sites

Almost every year there are 3 million pilgrims visiting the place and most of them are sick hoping that they will be cured in Lourdes. Over 7,000 miracles have been reported among the scores of pilgrims who’ve traveled to bathe in the spring. Of these, the Church has validated 67 through rigorous investigation.
